

ABSTRACT

An open-ended polyimide molding of an aromatic polyimide resin, which is characterized in that its wall thickness is at most 0.5 mm, and that the ratio of its depth to its opening is at least 0.7, or its longest major axis is at least 150 mm in length with its draw depth being at least 0.5 mm.

15